

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

To call what you are doing a "Special News Event" in order to get around campaign/media rules, is a corruption of the law. You are using the airwaves in a blatantly political manner, which runs contrary to the spirit, if not the letter, of the law.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair should use the public airwaves for the good of the public and not to serve the political agenda of its ownership.

Thank you.
